By arrangement, park at Ringsfield Village Hall.
Head south along Church Road.
Continue ahead, SE, at the crossroads along Redisham Road for 350 metres.
Turn right onto a driveway and immediately left, south, onto a bridleway.
Follow this downhill. The path bends right, west. Cross a stream, SW.
At open fields, turn right, west, hedge right, towards Redisham Hall.
After a gate, head SW, later south, across grazing, stream right.
There might be livestock.
After another gate, head SW on a road. Head between farm buildings.
Leave the wide track and continue SW into woodland, stream right.
After 600 metres, turn left, SE, hedge left.
At a house, the footpath bends slightly right, then left, NE, passing the front doors.
Follow the houses' access driveway SE.
Continue ahead, NE, on a field perimeter, hedge left.
Head east through a hedge gap, then immediately right, south, hedge right.
After only 30 metres, turn left, east, across the open field.
Head east through another hedge gap and footbridge.
Head east across the open field. Mid field, the right of way turns right, south.
After 100 metres, still mid field, go left, NE, aiming for the hedge right.
This is easy if the path has been reinstated or you can follow the GPS track.
At the slightly busy Redisham Road, turn left, north, for 370 metres.
Turn right, NE. Aim NE to pass close to the woodland, left.
Cross the railway.
Head NE across a long thin meadow that could double as an air strip.
At the end, go through a gate and turn left, NW, passing barns.
When the farm road bends right, continue ahead, NW, across the open field.
Cross a footbridge and head north through the caravan parking area.
Turn right, east, along King's Lane for 550 metres.
Turn left, NW, into woodland. Continue hedge left.
The path bends sharp left, then gently right.
Turn left and right through a hedge gap and across a footbridge.
Head NW, hedge right.
Cross a concrete strip bridge and head NE towards Walpole Hall.
The path bends left, north, hall right.
After the hall, bend left and left, west, and re-cross the railway.
Continue SW, later west, passing scrap and historic vehicles right.
Turn right, NW, soon north, along Redisham Road.
Continue ahead back to the village hall.
