Waveney Ramblers Waveney Bounds Two 40 Hedenham and Thwaite Saint Mary

Track: TM 34205 91171 GPX for SatNav 10.3 Miles Updated: 2024-12

Park at Ditchingham, Green Lane, (not the village hall).
Head NE along Loddon Road. Turn first left, north, along a footpath.
Follow this path to Thwaite Road. Continue north.
Turn left, NW, along Bakers Lane, narrow and uphill.
The lane bends right, north. Cross Belsey Bridge Road and continue north on a footpath.
Drop down and cross the stream. Continue north.
The right of way cuts across the field diagonally, NE.
The more convenient path crosses at right angles - seasonally very muddy.
Go right after a gate then left at another gate bypassing electric fences.
At Hall Farm, go left, south, then right, west, through the buildings.
Soon after Hall Farm, turn right, west, into a meadow and aim for the SW corner.
Go through gates and west across another meadow with some mature trees.
At the NW corner go right through a gate, then left, west, to the meadow exit.
Head west towards Hedenham, Saint Pater's church. Optionally divert to see the church.
Turn right, north along Seething Road. Turn right, east, along Toad Lane.
Pass the Seething Airfield Museum, a stall selling beer, (unusual!) and pass the Observatory.
Turn left, north, along Birch Way (track) - no signpost.
After one field, turn right, east, ditch right. Head east to Thwaite Saint Mary.
At Bungay Road, optionally divert to visit the Saint Mary's Church.
Cross Bungay Road and head east passing drives into several houses.
After the last house, turn left, north, and cross a stream (ford), usually dry.
The woodland path bends right, NE, soon east. Turn left, north, hedge right.
Turn right, east, hedge right and head to the Water Tower.
Turn right, south, along Ingolds Lane.
At a crossroads, go ahead, south, along Loddon Road to Broom Street.
Cross the Broome Beck and continue SW along Loddon Road.
Opposite Tunneys Lane, kink left and right and head SW across Broome Heath.
The best line passes a tumulus and has views of the lakes.
Turn right, west, and return the the car park passing the back of the village hall.
