Waveney Ramblers Halesworth 11 Holton and Halesworth

Track: TM 39264 79064 GPX for SatNav 5.2 Miles Updated: 2018

By agreement with the pub, park at the Triple Plea, north of Halesworth.
There's street parking in Halesworth half a mile south. Head north, then right, east, at the roundabout.

From the pub, head east along Sparrowhawk road.
The road bends right, south, then left, SE.
After the Bernard Matthew's factory, turn left, NE, along Scalesbrook Lane, factory left.
Head past the factore and along a couple of field perimeters, hedge left.
The terrain opens out and you get a good view of the Holton wind farm.
Turn right, east, trees right.
After 500 metres, bear left, NE, turbines left.
This used to be a concrete road but this has been returned to meadow.
After 850 metres, the path bends left, NW, briefly.
Roughly in line with the old WW2 runway, turn right, NE, along the signed footpath.
Go through a gap and head NW, hedge left.
After one field, turn left, west, trees right.
Back at tarmac, turn right, NW. The road bends left, west.
Cross under the railway and continue west.
At the crossroads, turn left, south along Butt's Road, a dead end for vehicles.
The road bends left and ends at a pedestrian and cycle railway crossing. Cross the line.
Head south still on Butt's Road, a dead end for vehicles.
At the T-junction turn right, west and soon SW.
The road bends left, south and passes the Triple Plea.
Head through the pub garden back to the car park.

If you parked in a Halesworth street, head to the roundabout and then south back towards the town.
