From the car park, head SW across the meadow, power lines and hedge left.
Back on tarmac, turn right, west. The road immediately bends left, SW.
After 770 metres, before a left bend, turn left, east, onto the signed footpath.
Continue SE, trees right, solar panels left.
Go through a hedge gap, then right on a wide farm track, soon heading SE, trees right.
Don't follow the main track right. Continue ahead, roughly east, trees right, through a hedge gap.
Continue east, woodland right with a good view towards Halesworth and the wind farm at Upper Holton.
Soon after power lines, the route east ends. Turn right, south, ditch right.
At the T-junction, turn left, east, power lines right.
At a crossroads in the path, go through the gate across the pasture, east.
There might be cattle. They mostly ignore the very frequent walkers.
Leave the meadow through another gate. Cross a bridge and head east towards the town centre.
Head east along Rectory Street then right, south, along Bridge Street.
Before the White Hart, turn left, east, across the car park.
Keep left to use the underpass to cross the A144, stream left.
After the toilets, head east across the parkland. Cross The Beck.
Turn left, north through new buildings, then right, east, along Quay Street.
Turn left, north, into Loam Pit Lane. This soon bends right, NE.
Ignore a footpath left. Continue NE. Cross under power lines and turn right, NE, power lines right.
Head through the gap and across the field, NE, on the diagonal path.
If that's missing, follow the field edge, north, then east, hedge left.
Go through the gap and head NE along a tree-lined path. Ignore a path right.
At the Bungay Road, turn right down the ramp. Cross the road and head NE over a bridge on the wide track.
Head towards the wind turbines, hedge left. The path kinks right and left to reach the road.
Turn left, NW, along Sparrowhawk Road, soon north.
Pass the Halesworth (Holton) Airfield Station 365 Memorial museum.
Turn right, north, along the N1 national cycle route.
The road bends left, west. Turn right north, still on the N1. This is Butt's Road.
Cross the railway. Continue north.
At the crossroads, turn left, west, along Noller's Lane, towards Spexhall.
Cross the A144 and continue west, soon SW, towards Spexhall.
At the T-junction, turn left, south, then right, west, into the churchyard.
Head west past the church. Head west through the gap and across the mown meadow.
Head SW across the open field.
At the bottom of the valley, go down a few decayed steps, cross the footbridge and head roughly west, ditch right.
Go through a gap. Continue SW, hedge right. Pass Halleluih Cottage, right and go through the last gap.
Cross the field, aiming for the gate in the SW corner. Turn right, NW, along the tarmac.
Ignore the first path left. Turn next left, SW, down Buntings Lane, wide enough for vehicles.
At the bottom, head right, west, along The Street.
Pass the Wissett, Suffolk Jungle Rooms cafe. Turn left over the footbridge into the churchyard.
Head round the church, south then west, back to the car park.
