Waveney Ramblers Guia de Isora 7 Guia Chio Chiguergue

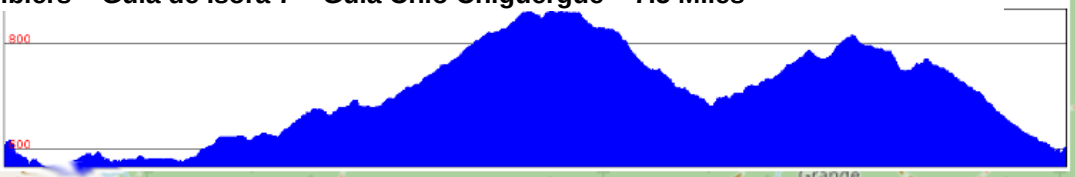

Track: GPX for SatNav 7.5 Miles Updated: 2020-01-16

7.5 Miles, 579 metres ascent / descent

From the bus stop, head west down to the main road, TF-82.
Head NW out of town along the TF-82.
A parallel road bypasses the main road for 250 metres.
540 metres from the junction at the edge of the town, turn left onto a farm track.
Head NW, at first on tarmac, but soon on gravel.
As you approach Chio, turn left, NW, along a footpath that runs below the village.
At a tarmac lane, turn right, NE and soon north.
This road passes some houses, then turns back into the original footpath, north.
The path converges with the TF-1.
Opposite a slip road, turn right, NE, uphill on an easily missed footpath.
This path is not much used and is a little overgrown.
Head towards a fluorescent bile yellow painted house and hope it hasn't been repainted.
Cross the TF-82. The path across the road is a little to the left.
Continue uphill, NE, on the footpath.
Cross the TF-375. Again the path ahead is 30 metres left. Continue uphill, NE.
There are more partial blockages on this little used path but it is possible to get through.
The path climbs, NE, and reaches a canal.
Cross the canal and a little ahead, turn right, SE, on a much better path.
Head roughly south back to Chio.
The branch in the track was the lunch stop with level places to sit.
Cross the TF-38 again and head south downhill.
The recorded track log goes through the narrow village streets.
It's also possible to walk along the main road.
At the south end of the village, turn onto Calle el Roquillo, uphill, east.
This track gradually veers south and the tarmac ends. Follow the rocky trail.
Later there is more tarmac and you join a larger road. Head SE to Chiguergue.
In the village avoid the steep drops left, SW. Continue SE also down a steep drop.
440 metres after the village edge, just after a house, turn right, south on a concrete road.
After a few metres the concrete ends and a footpath continues.
Follow this downhill, roughly south soon joining a wider track, SE, that leads to the water works.
After a cluster of farms, turn right, SW, onto a field access track.
Just before the field entrance, bear left onto a footpath, roughly south.
This emerges into Camino Chiguergue. Head SW, downhill.
Turn right onto Avenida Musical Isorana and head back to the bus stop.
